

Reflects awardee data from Fall 2017, Spring 2018, and Summer 2018. National study abroad data is from 2018 Open Doors report.

75%

indicated not being able to study abroad without Gilman Scholarship

21%

have never traveled outside of the U.S. before studying abroad

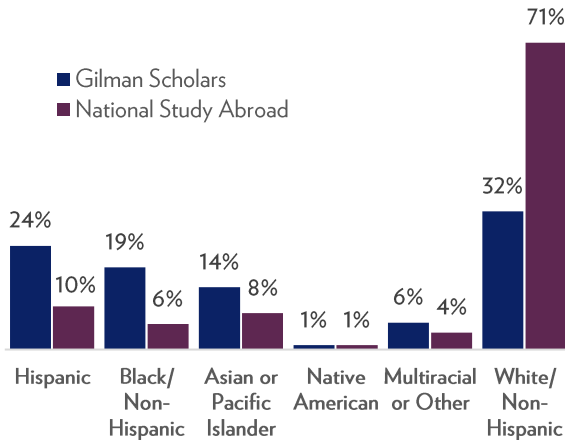

TOTAL NUMBER OF APPLICANTS

11,441

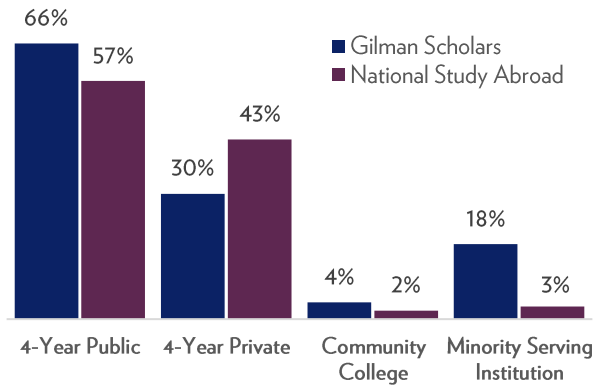

TOTAL NUMBER OF AWARDS

3,276

RACIAL/ETHNIC COMPARISON OF GILMAN SCHOLARS TO NATIONAL STUDY ABROAD

INSTITUTION TYPE COMPARISON OF GILMAN SCHOLARS TO NATIONAL STUDY ABROAD

30%

of Gilman Scholars are STEM majors

66%

of Gilman Scholars study a language abroad (35% are Critical Need Languages)

20%

participated in an internship, service learning or student teaching

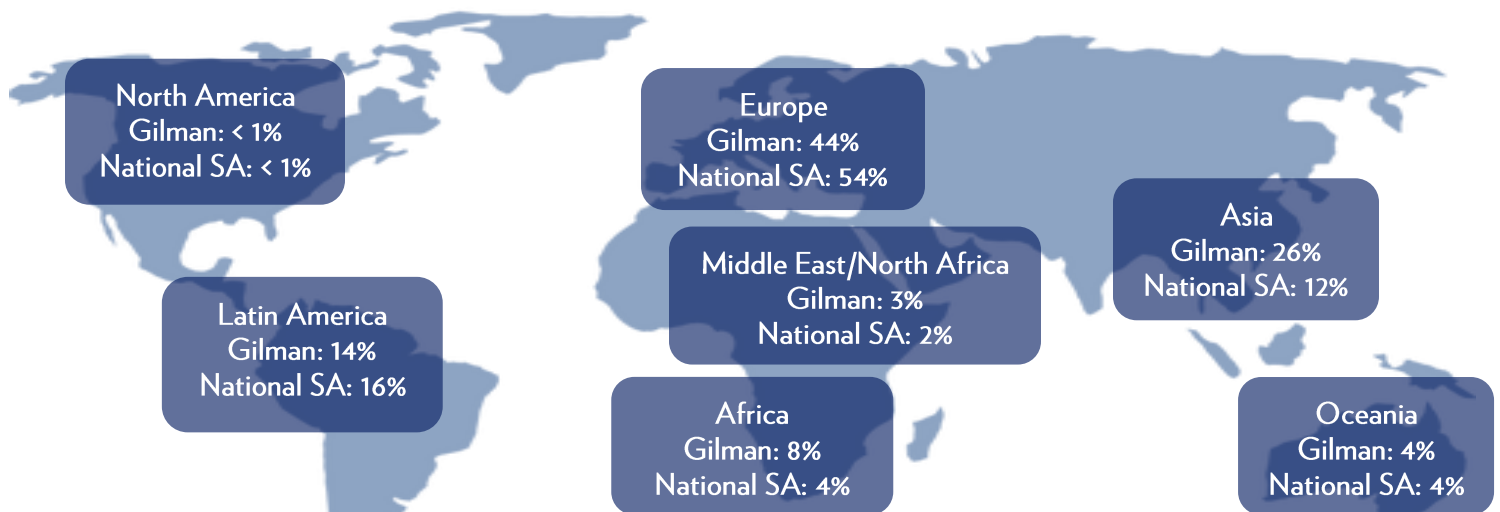

47%

of Gilman Scholars are first-generation college students

256

Gilman Scholars identified as having a disability

WORLD REGION DESTINATION COMPARISON OF GILMAN SCHOLARS TO NATIONAL STUDY ABROAD

The Gilman International Scholarship Program is an undergraduate grant program for U.S. citizens of limited financial means to enable them to study abroad, gaining skills critical to our national security and economic competitiveness.

The Gilman International Scholarship Program is a program of the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and supported in its implementation by IIE.