

GILMAN ADVISOR SURVEY

April/May 2020
Status of Abroad Programs

The Gilman Program sent a survey to all Gilman advisors to collect updates on their campuses' status and their work status.

The survey was open from April 22 – May 7. The survey returned over 400 respondents representing 360 institutions.

Study Abroad Programs Status at Institutions

Summer 2020 programs have been cancelled for the majority of survey respondents' institutions. The majority of respondents also reported the status of future programs in Fall 2020, Spring 2021, and AY 2020-2021 as "To Be Determined."

PROGRAMS ABROAD	SUMMER 2020	FALL 2020	ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-2021	WINTER 2020	SPRING 2021
All Canceled	71%	10%	5%	7%	< 1%
All Postponed	18%	5%	2%	2%	1%
Some Canceled	8%	13%	9%	3%	< 1%
Some Postponed	1%	5%	4%	1%	1%
To Be Determined	2%	67%	80%	87%	97%

Alternate Options for Study Abroad Provided by Institutions

Most advisors (64%) reported that either their institution is providing alternatives or is determining next steps on options.

Is your institution providing alternative options for study or intern abroad students?

Yes

To Be Determined

No

No Response

If advisors' institutions were providing alternate options, the most popular option made available for students whose programs were canceled was providing them with the choice to defer their program acceptance to a later term. Respondents were allowed to select multiple options.

Deferring students' abroad program

Virtual Programming

Switching to another abroad program

