

Alexander Elias Azar

Gilman International Scholarship Alumni

Ambassador

Belgium, 2019

“Living independently taught me a lot about the world and myself.”

While at Katholieke Universiteit Leuven in Belgium, Alexander studied how Belgian elections work differently from American ones. He met a diverse group of people through the EuroScholars program and learned a lot about the world while sharing his own experiences.

Alexander is pursuing a Master of Business Administration at Bryant University and believes programs such as the Gilman Scholarship and EuroScholars can build bridges in communities for sustainable development.

- ★ Served as a Reach the World correspondent
- ★ Participated in a Model United Nations North Atlantic Treaty Organization simulation and debated European students on simulated security issues
- ★ Conducted political research comparing party systems in the United States and Belgium.

 Gilman Scholarship[★]

The Benjamin A. Gilman International Scholarship Program is a program of the U.S. Department of State with funding provided by the U.S. Government and supported in its implementation by the Institute of International Education (IIE).
