

GILMAN ADVISOR SURVEY

Status of Study Abroad Programs July 2020

The Gilman Program sent a survey to all Gilman advisors to collect updates on their campuses' status and their work status.

This July 2020 survey was open from July 15 – July 21. The survey returned 71 responses.

Study Abroad Programs Status at Institutions

Almost half of the advisors report that Fall 2020 abroad programs have been canceled and 0% are resuming. Compared to the last survey, there is more confirmation on the status of programs.

PROGRAMS ABROAD	FALL 2020	ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-2021	WINTER 2020	SPRING 2021
All Canceled	49%	38%	21%	0%
All Postponed	24%	23%	10%	3%
Some Canceled	16%	13%	1%	1%
Some postponed	4%	5%	1%	0%
Resuming	0%	0%	7%	17%
To Be Determined	7%	21%	60%	79%

Virtual Options Provided by Institutions

More decisions on virtual options have been finalized compared with the last survey. Some institutions determined that they will offer virtual international programs to their students.

Yes

No

Unsure

To Be Determined

“We appreciate Gilman’s support of institutions, students, and funding!”

Top Challenges Advisors are Facing in Their Work

Listed in order of highest frequency:

1. Budget cuts for office, department, and/or staff
2. Disruption to in-person meetings and/or student recruitment
3. Planning for Fall 2020 term
4. Staff or faculty remote work

