

Gilman International Scholarship Program

Myth
Busters

Myth: The Gilman Scholarship can only be used for study abroad programs, not international internships.

FACT: Study abroad, internship programs or a virtual international program are eligible for Gilman as long as they meet program eligibility requirements.

Myth: I'm not going abroad for a full semester so I can't apply for a Gilman Scholarship.

FACT: The Gilman Scholarship doesn't have a minimum program length requirement.

Myth: I've applied for a Gilman Scholarship before, I can't apply again.

FACT: A Gilman Scholarship recipient can only receive the Gilman Scholarship once. If you previously declined the Gilman Scholarship, you are welcome to re-apply for another application cycle, as long as you still meet all eligibility requirements.

Myth: The Gilman Scholarship is so competitive, I probably won't receive it.

FACT: Approximately 1 in 4 Gilman Scholarship applicants are selected to receive the scholarship. If you don't apply, then you have a zero chance of receiving the scholarship.
